2 Nicholas was generous and made good use of his riches, always helping those in need. One day he heard about a man who was in despair . . .

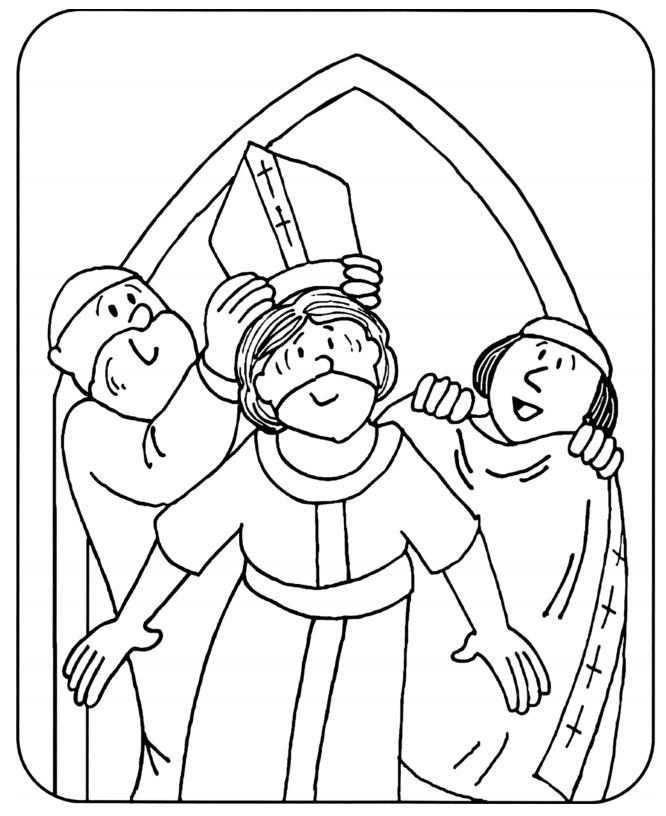

3 He had become so poor that he could no longer support his family. That night, Nicholas secretly brought a bag full of gold coins into their home.

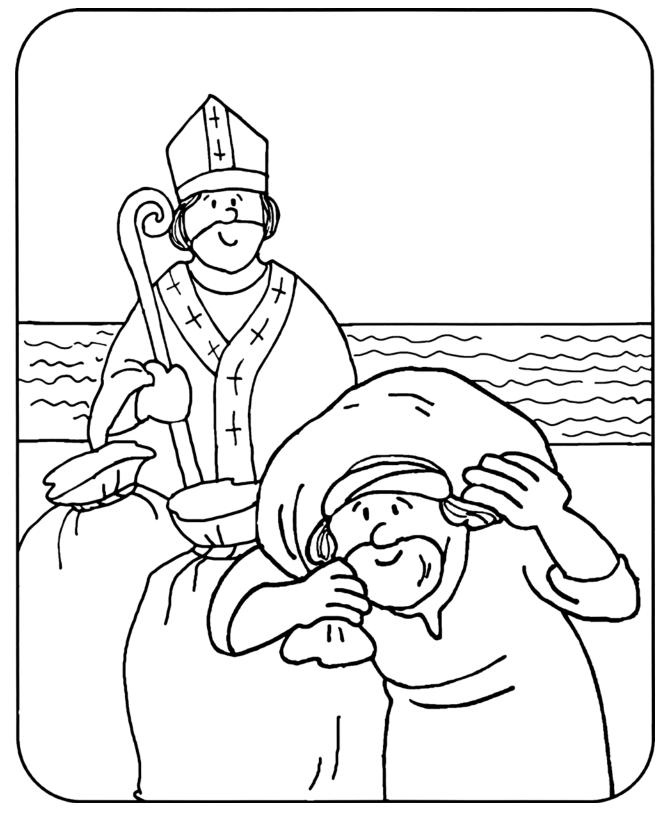

The next morning the poor man could not believe his eyes! Thanks to money from Nicholas he was able to solve all his problems and his three daughters could get married.

4

5 Nicholas went to Myra. The city was electing a new bishop and the first person to enter the church that day would be chosen. It was Nicholas!

Bishop Nicholas always worked hard for his people. During a terrible famine in Myra he secured a large amount of wheat . . .

6

Another time, speaking boldly, Nicholas saved some of his fellow citizens who were about to be executed by the Romans.

That night Nicholas appeared in a dream to Emperor Constantine, proving the innocence of the two officers. They were immediately released.

9

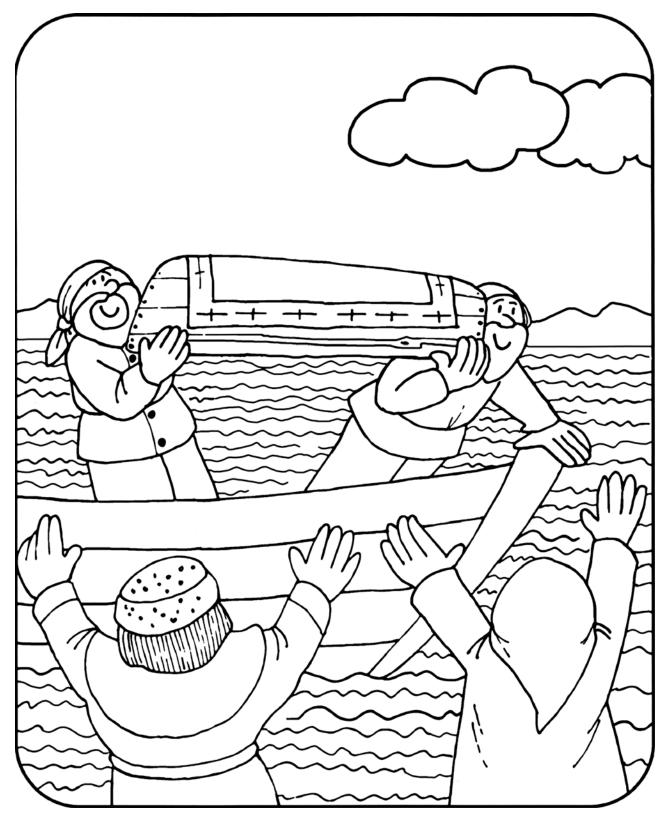

10 When the Emperor asked citizens of Myra for unreasonably high taxes, Nicholas went in person to Constantine and got him to undo the unfair taxes.

11 Nicholas also protected sailors. He appeared and calmed storms, saving ships and sailors.
